bite-sized Bible bits

Being awkward and then deciding to help after all is better than being agreeable and then doing absolutely nothing. (Matthew)

Without wood, a fire goes out; without gossip, arguments fade away. (Proverbs)

Prayer – the great competition about who can say most or sound best? No way.

It's about telling the truth to your dad. (Luke)

Cruel words crush the spirit; kind words bring you back to life. (Proverbs)

Good-lookers turn heads on the high streets. But God loves to see people who have sunshine on the inside. (Matthew)

Talk without thought can cut and hurt but wise words heal the heart. (Proverbs)

Noah - one good person makes all the difference. Build a boat, God tells him and round up some animals. Everyone laughs...until the rains come. (Genesis)

Arguments are like cracks in the walls of dams: if you don't sort the problem out there and then, you're in the firing line for big-time disaster. (Proverbs)

Ronald McDonald House Charities

Roy Methley is running the the Newport Marathon at the end of April in aid of Ronald McDonald House Charities (RMHC).RMHC provide free 'home away from home' accommodation at specialist hospitals across the UK, enabling families of sick children to stay close to their child.

They were a huge help to us when our daughter Sacha was in hospital, so any contributions would be gratefully received. If anyone would like to give, then they can go to JustGiving.com and search for Roy Methley, or see sponsor form in the church vestibule..
