

Church Family News and Prayers

Wishes for a summer's day

May your desire for the next thing never spoil your pleasure in what you have

May you never confuse realism with cynicism or assume that your own limits will be someone else's

May you welcome the way each answer brings forth a further question and each question calls out for an answer

May you give without calculation, love without reason and live without fear of each tiny possibility.

May you wish for just enough, the portion that fills your life without cluttering it.

May you learn to face the thing you fear and find it has no power to hold you

May your children always disappear from the room before your patience does

May you respect your parents but live your own life

May your ability to laugh always exceed your ability to be embarrassed

We continue to pray for those members of our Church Family and Friends who are unwell and all those who mourn.
